Carolyn S. Lang has over 25 years of dance and cheer training and choreography experience. She is a former T.J.C. Apache Belle Dance Captain and Texas Tech Pom Squad Captain where she received a B.A. in Dance and B.S. in Dance and Health Education. Carolyn has cheered with various pro teams, including the Kansas City Wizards Girls (MLS), the Kansas City Brigade Girls (AFL) and, most recently, the Kansas City Chiefs Cheerleaders (NFL). She has coached both competitive and recreational cheer squads and has worked as a choreographer for American Drill Team School since 1991. Her work has been featured in professional half-time shows and in motion pictures.

Andrea Godwin has 14 years of competitive cheer/tumbling experience including 4 years at Newman Smith High School, 3 of which she served as squad Captain. Her training also includes performing and competing with Cougar Cheer Company for 13 years and 1 year with Cheer Athletics. She is a 6 time UCA National Champion, a 2 time UCA All-Star and performed in the Macy's Thanksgiving Day Parade in NYC and the New Year's Day Parade in London. Andrea currently attends the University of North Texas where she majors in Kinesiology and History. She brings her love and passion for all things cheer to A Body in Motion!
