Carolyn S. Lang has over 25 years of dance training and choreography experience. She is a former T.J.C. Apache Belle Dance Captain and Texas Tech Pom Squad Captain where she received a B.A. and B.S. in Dance. Carolyn has danced for various pro teams, most recently the Kansas City Chiefs Cheerleaders. She has worked as a choreographer, instructor, and master judge for American Dance/Drill Team School since 1991. Her choreography has been featured in professional half-time shows and in motion pictures.

Nicole Funderburg is a graduate of Stephen F. Austin State University with a B.S. in Dance and received her teacher's certification in Dance and Physical Education. She was a member of the Repertory Dance Company and is currently a Principal Dancer for Votum Dance Company. Nicole has trained and performed both nationally and internationally, most recently in Berlin, Germany. Her areas of choreography expertise include Lyrical/Contemporary, Jazz, and High Kick.

Katinya Lilly is a former T.J.C. Apache Belle and University of Texas Pom Squad member. She launched Shake Jump Move, Dance & Fitness Company, that offers praise fitness, dance fitness, and Zumba® classes for individuals and groups while also offering dance classes and personal choreography sessions for performances in the mediums of modern, praise dance, tap, and dance/drill team. Katinya has choreographed in a variety of venues including stage dance, local churches and pageants. www.shakejummove.com
